

Useful Links for families supporting children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND)

<http://win.wolverhampton.gov.uk/kb5/wolverhampton/directory/localoffer.page?localofferchannel=1>

To support families of children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities. This is a direct link to the Wolverhampton local offer and parents can be signposted to a range of different resources and support.

<https://www.widgit.com/sectors/education/index.htm>

This website offers families support for children who struggle with a variety of aspects of day-to-day life. For example, health and safety and routines.

<https://www.bdadyslexia.org.uk/>

To support families of children who have children with Dyslexia. This website is created by the 'British Dyslexia Association'.

<http://www.dyscalculiaassociation.uk/>

To support families of children who have children with Dyscalculia.

<https://www.autism.org/>

To support families of children with an Autistic Spectrum Disorder.

<https://www.ndcs.org.uk/>

To support families of children who have children with hearing impairments.

<https://youngminds.org.uk/>

A charity website designed to support children's positive mental health.

<http://www.sensory-processing-disorder.com/>

To support families of children with sensory processing disorder.

<https://www.rnib.org.uk/>

To support families of children who have children with visual impairments.

<https://www.place2be.org.uk/our-services/parents-and-carers/supporting-your-child-s-mental-health/>

To support your child's mental health.

<https://www.autismspeaks.org/>

To support families of children with an Autistic Spectrum Disorder. This website offers useful resources to support children and families in school and at home.